MANAGER

IFAMA is an active, vibrant association of academics, students and professionals from around the world. Our mission is to sustainably feed a growing global population. We focus on all issues related to the global food supply chain including resource management, agricultural economics and engineering, biotechnology, marketing, processing, storage, and distribution.

☐ YES! I WANT TO VOLUNTEER!

PURPOSE

To engage the next generation of leaders in improving the global food system using innovation and business principles.

To co-create impact through collaboration with IFAMA, our student members, and academic and business leaders.

To provide support for the IFAMA Business Office and Young Board members for regional projects.

TASKS

Assist with expanding our membership base by recruiting and engaging students and young professionals in your region.

Develop and maintain database of potential new members (individual, institutional, and corporate) who are active in the agribusiness sector.

Establish frequent contact with current members for insights and feedback.

BENEFITS

Collaborate with students from all over the world who are passionate about improving the transparency and sustainability of the global food supply.

Learn next-gen leadership skills through this experiential platform.

Make connections and network with potential future employers.

REQUIREMENTS:

Must be an IFAMA member and have attended a virtual or in-person IFAMA conference. Commitment: 1 year, 2 hours per week.
